

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Uganda Technical College Bushenyi is located 50 Km along the Mbarara – Kasese high way in the District of Bushenyi, Igara East County, Rwentuha Town Council, Kitwe ward, Kahaya, which is a distance of about 8(eight) Kilometers away.

Uganda Technical College Bushenyi is a leading Technical Training Institution that supports the industrial growth and economic empowerment in the Country at different levels by providing appropriate knowledge, skills and attitudes in technical areas of Engineering, Science, Technology and related fields at Diploma level making the Graduates very productive and competitive in the world of work.

Applications are invited from Qualified Ugandans, aged 25 – 40 years, to fill the vacant position existing in the College.

1) Job Title: Female Enrolled Nurse (01)

Reports to: Senior Enrolled Nurse

Job Purpose: To provide Nursing services.

Key Output:

- Quality nursing delivery
- Infection prevention and control measures prevent the spread of diseases
- Accountability for available equipment supplies and drugs provided

Qualifications:

- Must have enrolled Nursing or Enrolled comprehensive comprehensive nursing from recognized institution
- Must be enrolled with Uganda Nursing and Midwives Council(UNMC)
- Must have a valid practicing Licence

At least 2(three) year's relevant working experience Nursing / world of work.

Key Functions:

- Carrying out nursing procedures
- Carrying out observations, keep proper records and ensure their safety custody
- Receiving and registering patients
- Carrying out health education
- Practicing in primary health care activities
- Record response times and outcomes for medical emergencies on campus.
- Track follow-up care plans and outcomes for students requiring ongoing health management or support.
- Administer medications and immunizations as prescribed.
- Provide health counselling and education to students on topics such as mental health, substance abuse prevention, and nutrition
- Collaborate with other healthcare providers and college resources to coordinate care and referrals for students requiring specialized services.
- Work closely with counselling services, disability support services, and academic advisors to support student success.
- Commitment to maintaining high ethical standards and confidentiality in healthcare.

Personal Skills:

- Ability to understand and support students with empathy and compassion
- Clear and effective communication with students and healthcare team members.
- Proficiency in ICT
- Analytical skills to assess student health issues and implement appropriate solutions.
- Strong communication ability (oral and written)
- Excellent organisational skills creativity and problem solving aptitude.
- Collaboration with healthcare professionals and campus staff to provide comprehensive care.
- Commitment to lifelong learning and professional development to enhance nursing skills and knowledge
- Commitment to maintaining high ethical standards and confidentiality in healthcare.

How to Apply:

All suitably qualified candidates should submit three (3) copies of their applications together with the following:

A detailed and up-to-date Curriculum Vitae.

Certified copies of candidate's academic transcripts and certificates. Original documents should not be sent at this stage.

Sealed applications marked i.e. "CONFIDENTIAL" and bearing the title of the post in the top right hand corner of the envelope must be forwarded and reach the Principal, on the address indicated below:

The Principal
Uganda Technical College Bushenyi
P.O. Box 81,
Bushenyi.

For more information about us, please visit our website utcbushenyi.ac.ug or send an Email: careers@utcbushenyi.ac.ug applications can be sent to this email.

Deadline: wednesday, June 26th, 2024

